Making our products as natural and at the same time as safe as possible is a guiding principle at CLR.

Our natural cosmetic actives have a high concentration of bioactive components and proven efficacy.

Phytosan™ K

- Natural anti-aging and anti-wrinkle product from organic soybeans.
- Counteracts UV-induced premature aging of the skin.
- Stimulates DNA repair.
- Strongly reduces UV-induced formation of elastase.
- Stimulates skin regeneration by promotion of collagen type 1.
- Increases skin smoothness and skin firmness, and reduces wrinkle depth.

Repair Complex CLR™ PF

- Anti-aging product based on Bifidobacterium longum.
- Counteracts UV-induced premature aging of the skin.
- UVB-induced immunosuppression by reducing IL-10 and promoting IL-12.
- Promotes DNA repair activity.

MPC™ – Milk Peptide Complex

- Fast-acting anti-wrinkle, skin regenerating and firming product based on milk.
- Contains polypeptides, such as TGF- β , which stimulate fibroblasts to produce ECM components, like collagen type 1, hyaluronic acid and fibronectin.
- Thickens the dermis and makes the skin firmer.
- Reduces the depth of wrinkles, makes the skin smoother and leads to an improved skin condition.

In vitro full thickness skin models provides information on damaged skin morphology

In vitro skin repair tests for dry skin

Dr. Claas Ruffer, Research Scientist from Dermatest, shows how in vitro full thickness skin models provide specific information on damaged skin morphology and the corresponding repair processes without the need for direct contact with the test subject. Use of this model is highly instructive when testing the action of moisturising cosmetics products or therapeutic lipid blends that support skin repair. The latest product trends will be presented by more than 250 exhibiting companies and brands at the 24th BEAUTY FORUM AUSTRIA on September 25th and 26th in Salzburg

BEAUTY FORUM AUSTRIA

The world of cosmetics comes to Salzburg

Industry trends, new treatments and new products from a total of more than 250 exhibiting companies and brands from all sectors of professional beauty care await the visitor to the 25th BEAUTY FORUM AUSTRIA being held on September 25th and 26th 2010 in the Salzburg Exhibition Centre. In addition the exhibition includes an exciting programme of professional and supporting events plus numerous championship contests in the fields of Make-up, Nail Design and Nail Art.

The core content of the 25th BEAUTY FORUM AUSTRIA is cosmetics, with prestige brands, market leaders and newcomers to the professional cosmetics sector. There will also be new products and ideas in the nail care sector, all playing a significant part in the varied range on show. In the foot care and podology section of the event there will be presentations of treatment concepts and interesting new products. In the wellness and spa section the focus will be on salon and spa concepts and design.

A series of practical workshop sessions will be offered by high calibre speakers from the relevant sectors, covering topics such as cosmetics, wellness, nail care, natural cosmetics, business and marketing etc.

The championships taking place live at the event include the 24th Austrian Make-up Championship, the 24th Austrian Nail Design Championship and the 2nd Austrian Nail Art Trophy.

All admission tickets bought at the exhibition ticket desk on the day, are also valid for entry to the 25th BEAUTY FORUM MÜNCHEN on October 16th and 17th. Note: this exhibition is taking place in 2010 for the first time at the Messe München International exhibition centre (Riem).
