Discover our world of miraculous products created by nature

GUSTAV HEESS has stood for experience, competence and continuity on the international oils and fats market, for flexible logistics, a service tailored to customers needs and for exemplary quality control since 1897.

GUSTAV HEESS combines the advantages of a family-owned business with the demands of a global presence: international connections, yet short channels allow us to react quickly and flexibly to even the most unusual requests. Our European subsidiaries, branch offices and agents provide customers with skilled assistance.

This is the result of our long-standing cooperation with growers and processors in the various regions throughout the world. Our well-established logistics system enables prompt deliveries of every product quality to our far-flung customers across the globe.

Since 1995 GUSTAV HEESS has abided by the certified quality management system according to DIN EN ISO 9001:2000. The technical expertise of our in-company laboratory in the chemistry and analysis of fats is certified by DACH according to EN ISO 17025.

Cosmetics, body care, foodstuffs or pharmaceutical products – our solutions to problems are as individual as the variety of the demands made by our customers.
