

Processing, packaging and laboratory services

Here it is, once again – our fully updated version of the market survey listing suppliers of services and products offered to you in the fields of processing, packaging and laboratory services. This market survey shows at a glance which products and/or services the listed suppliers have in their range.

The range covered by the listed companies is extensive. Beginning with measurement, testing and analysis devices, equipment for laboratory and development departments, mixing, dosing and transporting equipment, weighing, packaging and labelling machinery, filling lines and right through to software and services. The main service and/or products of each company is clearly indicated.

A big advantage is the presentation of e-mail addresses enabling you to make rapid and direct contact.

Would you like to be listed in our next issue with details of your own company's products and services? Then just fill in the form now, at www.cossma.com/marketsurvey to be in the next market survey.
